Family Focus

Welcome to Sunset! This past week was a great one! Mainor Perez unveiled plans for a new Hispanic congregation on Sunday morning and the elders announced the acquisition of 9.4 acres of land in Willard for our next church plant. Last Sunday we welcomed Jerry and Ella Owen to our church family. On Wednesday Leroy and Sue Davis stated their intention to work under the oversight of the elders here at Sunset. Sue is the daughter of our Doyle and Ruth Lindsey. Then on Thursday, Dwight baptized Jason Bussard into Christ here at the building. His wife, Kim, was baptized just a short time ago! We are grateful to God for all he is doing in the life of this church. Welcome all these new members!

I know you will be encouraged by the lessons Dwight will be bringing today! Be praying for our upcoming meeting with Steve Powers and the Health Fair! Keep up those Bible readings. Live joyfully this week . . .

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

A very happy Sunday to everyone! Can you think of a better way to spend a day than worshipping our Lord? I know I've been blessed to have this time with you today! As this ministry that we call CREW continues to take shape and becomes what God calls us to be, I want to take a few lines to talk about Cross Thinking. It sounds like a random thing I know, but it's truly where all Christians must start. The Cross is where we must begin to filter everything we do. We have to start asking ourselves questions like: If Jesus was in my position how would he handle my job? If Jesus happened to be in front of us in line at Wal-Mart would we still be so impatient? If we all began thinking about things the way Christ did, and treating others as if they were Him, what would this city look like? Let's have a great week and try to be Jesus in everything we do! God is good!
