Family Focus

We want to welcome Steve and Susan Powers and their three sons. Steve spoke last night and will be speaking at all our assemblies today. He is the preaching minister at the Northside Church of Christ in Harrison, AR. We also want to welcome everyone else this morning, with a special welcome to any of you who may be visiting.

We were thrilled last week to welcome two new families to Sunset. Jon and Shirley Ross have been attending here for almost two years and wanted to make their membership official!

We also welcomed Mark and Dianna Campbell and their two daughters, Amber and Nicole. The girls are students at Parkview. Welcome these newest members of our church family!!

The next two Saturday evenings at 6:00 we will have an opportunity to share a meal with two candidates for the preaching position of the Willard church plant. Joe Brumfield and his family will be with us on Saturday, March 13th for a meal and then he will preach on Sunday morning. Then Patrick Barber and his family will be with us the next Saturday evening at 6:00 (March 20th) and he will also preach on Sunday morning. A sign up list is on the bulletin board so we can plan for these two dinners. All you are asked to bring is dessert.

Pray for the success of our Wellness Fair next Saturday!!

Keep up those Bible readings . . .

Joe

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

Another week has come and gone! I can't believe how fast time goes by sometimes. I need to say thank you for all the prayers last weekend while we were out of town! We had an awesome visit at Lipscomb University and a great conference all the way out in Gatlinburg. Thank you for all of the support you give. I also need to say thank you to each of my chaperones. It wasn't an easy trip on the adults, but we all made it through without any major incidents! As I think about how everyone came together on this trip whether it was a chaperone or if you just simply said a prayer for us, I can't help but think about Extending Hope as it applies to our little CREW. I can't think of many things that would be more attractive to a newcomer than to see how much we care for each other! And that's one thing about Sunset that has always impressed me, we care deeply for each other. I think our challenge as Christians is to let our love for each other extend and be known by everyone that walks through our doors. As we continue to develop this community of love I can only imagine how God might bless us! Let's have a great week, and if you see a visitor, ask them if there's something you can pray about for them!
