Family Focus

Welcome to Sunset!! Today we especially want to welcome Patrick Barber and his wife, Charity, and their three children: Jadyn (age 4), Elaina (age 3) and Judah (age 1). Patrick is a Harding graduate and is currently serving the Westside Church of Christ in Searcy AR, as Education/Involvement minister. A group with interest in the Willard Church Plant had the opportunity of being with Patrick last night at a dinner here at the building. We will have the opportunity of hearing Patrick speak here at Sunset this morning and then at Brookline tonight. Continue to pray for the future church plant in Willard!

Last Sunday we welcomed newcomers, Ken and Meagan Evans and their newborn son, Wesley. Meagan grew up here at Sunset and many of you remember her parents, Brent and Stephanie Cox. Be sure and welcome this new family to Sunset!!

Congratulations to Venton Haskins (one of our elders) who received a "Rose" in last week's newspaper from one of his neighbors for the work he did clearing the neighborhood of snow during our last winter storm! Thank you, Venton, for letting your light shine!!

Keep up your reading! Remember, individual direct contact with God's Word is the primary means of Christian growth. Have a great week . . .

Joe

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

While I'm writing this Thursday morning I'm afraid my retinas might have been burned by the strange orange ball in the sky! Our weather continues to have major mood swings but God is the one thing that's always the same! Most of the time I'm not so thankful for such dramatic changes, but I'm always so grateful for the stability God provides! We had such an awesome night last Sunday as we made our own home-made pizzas. Thank you to the Logan's, York's, Wilson's, Hancock's, and Debbie Brashears for letting us borrow your kitchens! Our winners for most creative were Mackenzie Lee, Parker Samuel, Meghin Morris, Ally Grider, and Jacob Morris. The winners for best taste were Nicole Johnson, Garrett Morton, and Nathan Stracke! We have such a great group of young people here! Please take a moment today and tell a young person how much you love and appreciate them! God bless your life this week! Make it a great one!
