Family Focus

Welcome to Sunset! We were excited to welcome a new family last Sunday; Daniel and Jessica Rogers and their children, Clayton and Kelsi. Daniel works with Shelter Insurance. Be sure and meet them! It is good to have Dwight Samuel back home again after his short course at Harding Graduate School in Memphis. And, it will be exciting to have Tony Gentry with us tonight as our guest speaker. (I will be speaking at Union Hill.)

On Friday our Mexico Campaign Group leaves for Monterrey. They will be traveling and working with a group from Brookline. Pray for these folks as they make their final preparations.

The Union Hill Church of Christ will be breaking ground for their new auditorium on Sunday, June 29th at 5:00 PM. I plan to be there for that short ceremony and then race to Sunset for our evening service. Join me if you can!! Have a great week...

This N That

Given the circumstances of a sagging economy and theft on the rise we want to remind our members of some safety tips. With gas being more a luxury, these days, than gold, keeping your cars parked outside at night in a well lit area is best. If you have to park outside, take your garage door opener with you. Thieves break into cars to get them and then use them when you are not at home. Using your garage for the car these days, would be better than housing it full of collected junk. Roll up your windows and always lock your vehicles. Never leave your purse visible in the car and unattended. Lock your house, even when you are home. Be safe, take precautions when going away on vacation and have your house watched. Energy saving tips: The hot summer will run the A/C hard and you can do some things to cut the cost. Clean leaves and debris away from your unit outside. Draw blinds and curtains in your home to keep the sun from warming up your house and causing the A/C to work harder. Use your oven and dryer in the early morning, if possible, to avoid heating up the house in the afternoon. Do yard work in the early morning or early evening to avoid heat stroke and heat related problems. Take time to be a little lazy, prop your feet up and enjoy the summer with a glass of lemonade under a tree. Also remember your pets; they need a cool place and plenty of water.

Tidbit for the Week

"A life without love is like a year without summer."
(proverb)

Youth Activities

Let the sunburns begin. Oh wait, I already started on mine! It's crazy how fast your skin can become charcoaled without you even realizing it. I hope everyone enjoyed their first week of summer; maybe you're not too bored yet. If you've hit that stage of boredom don't worry there's plenty of youth stuff going on to keep you out of trouble! Just remember to bring a little sunscreen. Thanks to the Sewell's for all they did last weekend in hosting our Summer Kick-Off. Everything was great! Please pray that everyone stays safe in all their travels and activities this summer!
