Family Focus

Welcome to Sunset! We are glad you are here today to worship God in the comfort of our air conditioned auditorium!! Welcome home Dwight!! (I think he looks smarter after his week in class at the Graduate School in Memphis, don't you?)

Last Sunday we prayed for Judy Jewell as she came asking that we pray for strength as she lives out her commitment to Christ. We also had the privilege of praying for Joe Brumfield and for Nick and the entire family as Joe and his dad, Dale, and his youngest son, Josh, were with us.

Today is the day we have our collection of toilet paper for Fair Haven Children's Home! If you forgot your TP this morning you can plan to bring it tonight! Thanks to all who donated to this worthy cause. Speaking of worthy causes, thanks to everyone who donated school supplies and helped stuff backpacks. These supplies were donated to students at Study and Portland schools. We have already had one parent who phoned the church office expressing deep gratitude for this gift. As Brian Dahl said, "We done did a good thing"!

Stay cool this week and hold on to God's hand.

FAIR HAVEN PAPER DRIVE

DON'T FORGET
THE TOILET PAPER TODAY!

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

It's been a fantastic summer! I hope you've had a great one too. I know it's been super busy for everyone. I want to ask you to pray for the CREW as they head back to school and off to college. Also, pray for Caleb as he leaves us this afternoon. This morning will be his last time with us. Let him know how much you've appreciated him this morning! I can't tell you how much he's meant to us this summer! I also feel like I need to brag on the CREW a little bit. I challenged them this summer to be the servants they're called to be as Christians, and they have exceeded all my expectations. They've worked tremendously hard this summer, I almost feel like a slave driver, but they've also helped a tremendous number of people and formed some great relationships with each other. After all, that's what Working Together is all about! Make it a great week!
