PRAYER CONCERNS

MAY 5TH, 2024

- Bill Johnmeyer was taken to Cox S. ER Thursday night. It was determined he was having TIAs and more tests were conducted Friday.
- Colleen Elliott went to Mercy ER Thursday. She has stones in both kidneys and consulted with the doctor Friday to set up a time for surgery. She would appreciate prayers.
- Mike Smith had an ultrasound / echocardiogram Tuesday because of a current heart condition & extremely high blood pressure.
- John McLain fell last week. X-rays showed no fractures, but his right shoulder is sore in addition to his previous arthritis pain. He has been instructed to not lift anything for a couple weeks. Prayers appreciated.
- Larry and Sandy Eichner express their sincere thanks for your prayers for Larry's surgery last week. He is doing well.
- Joe Ryan had his annual swallow test Tuesday as a part of his care plan.
- Robby Davis asks for prayers for peace and comfort as he deals with the loss of Gail and works to settle final tasks and obligations.

FAMILY FOCUS

Good morning, and welcome to Sunset! Let these words of Zephaniah 3:17 (CSB) call you to worship today: "The Lord your God is among you, a warrior who saves. He will rejoice over you with gladness. He will be quiet in his love. He will delight in you with singing."

Leadership is hard. This is true not only in a church context but also in several other areas. Leaders take heat for their decisions, they regularly put out fires, and at any given time, there is someone who is unhappy with them. In our text today, Moses is feeling the total weight of leadership. Jethro recognizes that Moses is headed for burnout that will affect him and all of God's people, and he says that Moses needs to appoint some other faithful men to help him lead Israel. This passage is rich with information about what good, godly leadership looks like and what the beautiful outcome is whenever our leaders are as healthy as possible. Whether you are an elder, deacon, minister, teacher, mom, dad, boss, or in some other place of leadership, I pray what we reflect on will benefit you!

I love you all,
 Phillip
